

Press release

Gatti Pavesi Bianchi merges with Ludovici Piccone & Partners

The new firm, which will be named "Gatti Pavesi Bianchi Ludovici", is moving towards an important path of growth and internationalization by combining the practices of Gatti Pavesi Bianchi with Tax and Wealth Planning, in which Ludovici Piccone & Partners enjoys a recognized expertise

Milan, 21st September 2020. The law firm Gatti Pavesi Bianchi (GPB) and the tax firm Ludovici Piccone & Partners (L&P) are joining forces to create Gatti Pavesi Bianchi Ludovici (GPBL); as of 1st January 2021, the new firm - which will count on 140 professionals, of which 20 Equity Partners – who will operate in GPB's current offices in Milan and Rome and will have its own presence abroad in London, Vienna and Luxembourg.

The new Firm will be able to advise and assist its national and international clients with its high-level expertise in all areas of civil, commercial and corporate law, in national and international taxation, in transfer pricing as well as in the field of trusts, estate and wealth planning, offering cutting-edge innovative and sophisticated solutions both in corporate and structured finance transactions and in complex litigation matters.

The merger brings together two excellences in their respective fields whose professionals share the same values and will create a highly synergistic and integrated firm that, starting from a consolidated position in the domestic market, intends to expand and increase its international presence.

About Gatti Pavesi Bianchi

Gatti Pavesi Bianchi is a leading top tier law firm recognized throughout the business environment in Italy. Specialized in corporate, banking and finance, regulatory and financial-market law and ranks among the main organizations regarding transactions in M&A (also mainly involving major private equity firms), capital market, banking and finance, equity and debt restructuring. For over 30 years, the firm has been involved in the structuring and carrying-out of particularly complex deals both domestic and cross-border, which have radically changed the Italian economic scenario. When assisting key Italian and international players, the firm has taken on a crucial role in transforming the entrepreneurial, financial and legal market in Italy. Today it counts 100 lawyers, 16 equity shareholders, offices in Milan and Rome. For more information www.gpblex.it/en/

About L&P - Ludovici Piccone & Partners

L&P - Ludovici Piccone & Partners is an independent Italian tax law firm providing integrated tax advisory services on all areas of domestic and international taxation for both corporate and private clients with offices in Milan, Rome, London, Luxembourg and Vienna. L&P currently has a team of 32 professionals. In addition to the name partners Paolo Ludovici and Pietro Piccone Ferrarotti, the partners are Michele Aprile, Loredana Conidi, Andrea Iannaccone, Andrea Prampolini and, at the London office, Luca Formica.

Media Relations

IMAGE BUILDING

Claudia Caracausi - Davide Bruzzese

T: +39 0289011300

E: gattipavesibianchi@imagebuilding.it